INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town
as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake
Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Emmet Mullen spent Sunday and Monday in the Bay City.

Miss Myrtle Minkie visited in the Bay City Saturday.

S. Aistras of Bay Point is the guest of John Basilou this week.

Professor Kemp visited in San Francisco Saturday and Sunday.

Jack Gough of Sonoma was in town one day last week doing politics.

W. T. Gunther of San Francisco is a guest at the Wheatland residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Coutts of Kenwood were guests at the Block residence Sunday.

Ex-Senator Price of Santa Rosa was the guest of John Lounibos Thursday.

Mickie Dugan, mascot for the Seals, is in town and is a guest at the El Verano Villa.

Edwin Faithful spent the latter part of last week the guest of relatives in San Francisco.

Emile Dutil, of San Francisco, spent Sunday the guest of his folks at the French Cottage.

Sam Lewis, Sonoma's popular butcher, took last Sunday's S. P. train for Berkeley on business.

John Basilou and Dave Forni took in the entertainment at Boyes Springs last Friday evening.

A. Chelini, our new contractor, is building a large wood and coal shed which is a credit to the town.

John Mulcahey, a capitalist of San Francisco, is registered at Paul Vannucchi's resort at Verano.

Clarence Lea passed through here en route to his large walnut ranch at Schellville one day this week.

F. A. Riser and Chas. Spindler were passengers for Oakland on Tuesday morning's Southern Pacific train.

Francis DeKoneksiventri, after spending several weeks at "El Verano Vill," left for San Francisco Sunday.

C. E. Bergstrom of the Peterson Lumber Co. transacted business in San Francisco and Oakland the latter part of last week.

Miss Mary Dowdall, after a sojourn in San Francisco and Oakland the past month, returned to her home here Saturday evening.

Nick Dowdall and O. T. Wilkinson showed that they could come back last Sunday on the diamond, Nick having knocked out a home run.

Miss Charlotte McMinn, formerly teacher of our school, but now of Santa Rosa, was a guest last Friday at the A. W. Weaver residence.

Among the prominent gentlemen who were seen on our streets last Saturday were Blair Hart of Lakeville and J. K. Bigelow of Agua Caliente.

Byron Weaver, a popular young man of this place and a graduate of the Santa Rosa business college, has accepted a position in the Sonoma Valley Bank.

The big talk in this town the past week has been the races to be held in Sonoma on September 9th. Everybody is going from here as El Verano always sends a large delegation to the race meets of the Sonoma Driving Club.

The baseball game Sunday between El Verano and Kenwood resulted in a victory for the home team the score being five to six. A large crowd attended and the game was well contested. George Block made his initial try as a pitcher and made good.

Another of our young society chaps seems to have got the double cross from his San Francisco sweetheart. He seemed to be in a trance all week. It's too bad, Willie, that Madalene isn't coming up, but never mind, Bill, there are plenty more girls right here in Verano.

"The Old Horses" are still on the bit and manager Block informed A. McKiver that he was anxiously waiting word from the "Old Steeds" of Sonoma. This game would draw a large crowd and the public is waiting anxiously for the date when it shall be played.

Miss Margaret Gordon of San Francisco is a guest at the Seven Oaks.

Miss E. Hart, a charming young lady of Mill Valley, spent Sunday with friends at Agua Caliente. Miss Hart formerly resided at that place.

J. W. Ford, Assistant District Attorney, was in town from Santa Rosa last Tuesday. Jack is popular here and the boys were glad to see him.

Miss Alice O'Dowd of San Francisco, after spending several weeks at Hegwitt's Farm, Agua Caliente, returned to her San Francisco home Sunday last.

Billy Freeman, the well known San Francisco mixologist, is now head house clerk at Paul's place, Verano, which position he fills with class and dignity.

Charley Miller, Louie Parente's white hope, went down to defeat at the hands of Fireman Jim Flynn at Coforth's Daly City arena last Monday. A broken rib caused Charley to quit.

E. Kennedy, another white hope, was defeated in the metropolis on Friday evening of last week by Spider Kelly's white hope, Al Williams. Kennedy has returned to El Verano to recuperate.

Heine Bruno, bus driver at the Villa, and Frank Peebles, musician, have bought several acres of land in Chickenville and will go into the chicken business on a large scale.

The result of the contest here for delegates to the Republican and Democratic conventions respectively at Tuesday's primary was as follows: Benjamin, Rep., 27; Bigelow, Bull Moose, 27, a tie vote. Baines, Dem., 30; A. W. Weaver, Dem., 7.

Miss Lou Block, one of El Verano's pretty young ladies, is getting to be some chaffeur. Miss Block drove a car to San Francisco one day last week and handled the auto like a veteran through the streets of the metropolis.

George McNab, a dancing master of note, is in town, and the girls all tell McKiver that he is the ragging kid. George can glide along or walk along as good as the next and lately took the first prize at the Cliff House, San Francisco, for his classy ragging.

Joe Haden, well-known comedian, boxer and blacksmith, is nursing a dislocated arm. Joe claims that he was trying his right hand on a trouble-maker and in giving him the sleep producer put his arm out of commission, which is now in a sling.

Everything is in readiness for the much-talked of Bus Drivers ball. The hall has been tastefully decorated and the boys have worked hard to make it a success. Everybody will turn out on Sunday evening, the eighth. Fine music will be furnished by the Pauli-Johnson orchestra for this much-talked of and looked-for event. Come one, come all. The big time will be pulled off at the Bellevue Hotel Hall, and Emile Cornelius of Sonoma will be floor manager.

The returns of the primaries held here Tuesday resulted as follows in the Supervisorial contest: Blair Hart, Democrat, received 21 votes on his party ticket and had his name written in on 13 Republican tickets, while J. M. Allison, his opponent for the Democratic nomination received 24 party votes and 1 Republican. Wise, Republican, 30; Ellis, Rep., 22. It is conceded here that Mr. Hart will be elected to succeed himself by a sweeping majority at the November election.

Last Saturday evening a hard-hearted chaffeur, who passed through town breaking the speed limit, ran over a pet suckling pig belonging to Frank LaFranchi. The suckling was raised from a bottle and was known by all the children here as "Dandy." The heartless speed burner did not take time to stop his gas machine after the slaughter. If he ever comes to town again he will no doubt get a stormy reception, as the number of the machine was taken by a plain-clothes detective who saw the unmerciful slaughter. Dandy was valued at one hundred dollars.

REMARKABLE FEAT OF AN AUTOMOBILE.

Driver of Car Reverses Gear the Wrong Way and Machine
Crashes Clean Through
Side Wall of Mission
Garage.

A most remarkable thing occurred at the Sonoma Garage last Saturday evening, and had there not been half a dozen eye-witnesses to the happening and the wrecked condition of the garage to prove their statements, the story would be almost beyond belief.

Just before seven o'clock an out-of-town automobilist who had run his two-passenger machine into the garage earlier in the day essayed to make his exit into the street and in an effort to back out of the way of Dr. Thomson's big touring car the stranger reversed his gear the wrong way and shot the car forward at a speed of twenty miles an hour. It struck the west side of the garage with terrific force and went clear through the building and dropped three feet to the ground below.

The driver kept his seat and held on to the steering gear and after circling around in the large vacant lot west of the garage brought his car to a standstill. That he was not killed by the wreckage of the building as he shot through its side was due to the fact that the top of his machine was raised and this prevented him from coming in contact with the broken beams and corrugated iron sides of the building, which were lifted bodily up by the machine as it passed through the opening and was held in position by the top, until the auto was clear of the wreckage when it flew back with terrific force.

Remarkable to relate the machine was but little damaged, although it had plunged through a wall of galvanized iron and 6x4 scantlings and had dropped three feet into the lot below, wrecking everything in its path. It left an opening in the side of the building large enough for a six-horse coach to pass through.

Death of Mrs. Mary Wilson.

Mrs. Mary W. Wilson died from cancer of the liver at her home on Broadway last Monday night after a long illness. The deceased was a native of Illinois and aged 70 years five months and 9 days.

The funeral took place from her late residence on Wednesday afternoon, where funeral services were conducted, after which the remains were shipped to Oakland to be cremated on Thursday.

The deceased lady is survived by a husband.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and its Immediate Vicinity—The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Mrs. L. Lutgens spent Monday in San Francisco.

Spencer Harris was a local visitor in the city Tuesday.

Messrs. Meek and L. Lowell of Oakland visited here Sunday.

Ralph Murphy and family have returned from Dillon's Beach.

Mrs. J. J. Dunbar returned from San Francisco Monday evening.

Granville Harris transacted business at Susan the latter part of last week.

John Ryan came up from the city Sunday and remained over here until Tuesday.

Miss Elise Juillerat of Oakland is the guest of her sister Mrs. R. E. Lynch this week.

Mrs. V. Jansen and son Jerome were visitors in San Francisco Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ryland were here from the metropolis the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Ida Piatt has been visiting in Dixon but will shortly return to her school in Santa Monica.

Jack London, the noted author, was in town from his country home, Wake Robin Lodge, Glen Ellen, last Wednesday.

Mrs. J. D. Haines and daughter, Mr. Clarence Haines and son of Berkeley spent Sunday and Monday with town relatives.

Deputy District Attorney J. W. Ford was here from Santa Rosa last Monday on business connected with the estate of the late Jas. M. La Rue.

Tony Murphy, the well known telephone operator at Eldridge, has just recovered from a successful operation on his nose. The young man is gifted with a beautiful baritone voice and it is expected that this operation will greatly improve it.

Sunday, September 8, services will be conducted at the Congregational church by Rev. Palmer. The morning topic will be "Life's Forward View." The evening topic will be "Personal Equation in Christian Lives and Service."

Mrs. Keogh was a most kindly woman and being a natural born nurse and possessed of considerable knowledge of medicine and the care of the sick, her services were ever gratuitously at the disposal of her friends and neighbors, and in this way she did a world of good during a long and useful life.

The deceased lady was recently appointed a member of the Sonoma library board of trustees and had long been a member of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club and the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church and other civic bodies.

The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock from her late residence on Napa street and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

The floral offerings were magnificent and were the tributes of the Woman's Club, Ladies' Aid Society, the wholesale lumber firms of San Francisco with which deceased's son are associated, old friends and relatives from San Francisco and the bay cities.

Mr. Stoll will leave this afternoon for St. Helena, where he will participate in the Vintage Festival. His organization is particularly interested in the floral and trades parade which takes place on Monday, Admission Day. They are contributing a beautiful float to the parade showing the origin of California's viticultural industry. They are also offering three beautiful silver trophy cups for the best wine display, grape display and viticultural auto or vehicle featuring the grape.

Socialist Meeting

Joseph Bredsteen, of Eureka, Socialist candidate for Congress from this district, will address the people of Sonoma on Tuesday evening, September 10th, at 8 o'clock p. m.

The Socialist candidate is editor of the Eureka Labor News and is a talented speaker. Come and hear the issues of the campaign discussed from the Socialist point of view. Everybody welcome.

Winners of Prizes

The following were the lucky numbers which won the prizes given by the Sonoma Valley Ice Cream Parlors to its patrons: First prize of $5—No. 771. Second prize of $2.50—No. 298. Third prize of $1 box of candy—No. 150.

Baseball Sunday

Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 p. m., there will be a base ball game on the Sonoma grounds near the Mission Garage. The manager will endeavor to have a strong team on hand to oppose the local nine.

September Showers.

Rain fell throughout the valley last Monday and was sufficient to thoroughly lay the dust on the public thoroughfares and put the sprinkling carts out of commission for several days. It is said the precipitation Monday portends an early winter.

Sonoma, California, September 7, 1912

A Valuable Factor.

The Ninth of September is to be celebrated this year as it never was before in Sonoma county for through the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club a splendid festival has been planned which will make historic Sonoma the nucleus of many visitors on that day.

The greatest interest centers about the Art and Relics Loan in the Mission San Francisco de Solano on Spain street, and that it will be of great historic value is apparent from the list of curios catalogued by our enterprising club women and contributed by Jack London, the famous traveler and author, and other citizens of this valley. It will attract wide-spread attention to the valley and places the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club in the front rank of the Federation, where such work is properly recognized. Every citizen should feel appreciative of the public spirit of the woman's organization which has been so untiring in its efforts to improve Sonoma's environment—its cultural and educational side—and one does not have to look far to find constant reminders of the excellent work being done. Instance the generous gift toward the completion of the Carnegie library building, which is as laudable and unselfish as any civic effort could be and demonstrates that the women care more for the housing of a public good than they do for club house or self comfort.

This spirit should be fittingly recognized and the women helped to build a splendid club house of their own.

General Nelson A. Miles' Opinion of Theodore Roosevelt

It will be interesting to the people of the Pacific Coast to learn from time to time the opinion of distinguished people in the East of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, the traitor to his party, the would-be third-term and tin soldier of fortune. The latest of these opinions come from the pen of General Nelson A. Miles, the greatest Indian fighter this country has ever produced, and who is now on the retired list of the United States Army. This illustrious military captain, and one of the greatest of his age, in a signed statement dated September 1st, has this to say of the biggest humbug of the present day:

"Never during the history of our republic have its citizens been brought face to face with such a serious political condition. It is a question whether the government, created and maintained by the wisdom and patriotism of the last century shall continue, or whether all shall be thrown down and replaced by visionary theories, with the control of all public and private interests at the national capital. This for the gratification of the mad, selfish ambition of one man who for years has been aspiring and intriguing to become a dictator. I trust our countrymen will think deeply and act wisely before they permit our government to follow the fate that has fallen other republics."

"This is the true character of Theodore Roosevelt, the most colossal fraud that this country has ever produced and the most unfit man for the responsible and dignified office of president—Roosevelt the pretender, Roosevelt the reckless, Roosevelt the insolent."

During his sojourn in town one day last week, Ross Campbell, the well-known attorney of Santa Rosa dropped into our sanctum and upon being quizzed about his being a stockholder in the Expositor denied with asperity the soft impeachment. He appeared to be ashamed of the connection and volunteered the statement that he nor DeWitt Montgomery had anything to do with taking over the Expositor that it was the work of Bigelow alone and that they had no interest now, nor never did have in the aforementioned sheet. Now, what do you think of that?

THE RESULT OF TUESDAY'S PRIMARIES

Blair Hart Nominated by the Democrats for Supervisor and J. H. Weise by the Republicans

Fulwider, Taffie, Defeats Kilgore Bull Moose, For Assembly in this District by 300 Votes

The election last Tuesday in the Thirteenth Assembly district resulted in a signal victory for the adherents of President Taft and was a stinging rebuke to the followers of Roosevelt-Johnson. The lines were strictly drawn between the Taftites and the Roosevelt-Johnson forces in the contest for Assemblyman of the Thirteenth District, Kilgore, the Bull Moose, being defeated by Lucien E. Fulwider by 300 majority. Hart, standpatter for Congress, defeated Connick, the Roosevelt-Johnson candidate, by a big majority not only in this county, but in other parts of the district and wins out by a big majority. In the Supervisorial contest Blair Hart defeats J. M. Allison for the Democratic nomination by a majority of over 135 votes. J. H. Weise defeated Ellis by nearly 200 majority for the Republican nomination.

Democratic County Committee-men.

The result of Tuesday's primaries resulted in the following selections of local Democrats to serve as County Committeemen for their party during the campaign: Glen Ellen—Leo Justi. Agua Caliente—F. Nicholani. El Verano—Thos. H. Baines. San Luis—F. Helberg. Vineburg—J. H. Murray. Sonoma No. 1—Jesse Prestwood. Sonoma No. 2—S. B. Lewis.

Miss May Baines of San Francisco was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kizer Saturday and Sunday.

Everybody's doing it! doin' it! doin' it! Well, doin' what? Pickin' prunes. That is all that's doin' when it's done.

Miss May Bosch of Vineburg is at present the guest of her sister, Mrs. Morris Levy, at the Hotel Mervyn, Glen Ellen.

Carl Weishaar, the genial proprietor of the One Mile House, made a business trip to the bay city the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shaw of Green Brae were the guests of friends on the Hyde tract the latter part of last week and returned home Monday last.

Mrs. Schaffener of San Francisco paid a visit to her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Klappenech, at their home near here a few days last week.

M. J. Hibbard, a well-known citizen of Sonoma Valley and now located in Sonoma city, was a visitor in Vineburg on Wednesday last where Pop has many friends.

Rudolph Bundschu of San Francisco is the guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bundschu at Rhinefarm. He certainly chose an ideal spot for a few days recreation.

Mrs. H. H. Stephenson of Sacramento and her two children have returned home after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter Bundschu, at her home at Rhinefarm and were much pleased with their visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pape of Sonoma were visitors in Vineburg one day this week and after a pleasant drive to Napa returned to Sonoma. Mr. Pape is the well-known mixologist at the Palace Hotel in Sonoma city.

Since last Sunday we notice his Honor, the Mayor, parts his whiskers neatly in the center just to give the wind a chance, and softly sings to himself, "The Two Little Girls in Black." Cute things. Where did he find them?

Every one that is a lover of good sport is waiting for the race meet at Sonoma on September 9th. They have attended the races before and know well that whatever officers like Sam Lewis, Joe Ryan and others say will surely go.

Misses Adele Andrieux and Louisa Batto of Vineburg, accompanied by Miss Rose Basaglia of Sonoma, took Saturday morning's train for Santa Rosa and Sebastopol to visit friends and relatives. During their stay they expected the hop fields. They returned on Sunday evening in the Batto auto and report a pleasant trip and a fine reception in that part of the country.

Vineburg, Sept. 6, 1912.
Easy Jim:
Both Minnie and Viola have had their say for the last two weeks, so I guess it is about time for me to tell my troubles. Well, the primary election passed off quietly in this precinct and I heard one lady who takes an interest in politics say that it was a "Weise" man that voted for "Hart."

Of course Belle Brandon of El

Verano may boost her "Old Horse Club" and try to make people think they are "It," but here we have a swell club called the Crescent Club of Vineburg, and on Thursday evening last its members were entertained by Harry Kizer, our local merchant, at his residence near here. The menu was perfect. The clam chowder was simply delicious and the chicken tamales were an epicurean dream. Peter Bosch, Jr., was chef. The guest of honor was Jos. F. Groskopf and the following members were present: Harry Brandt, James Kehoe, Louis Klappenech, J. Groskopf, Peter Bosch, Jr., Arthur Batto, William Dunn, Harry Dunn and Harry Kizer.

I went to El Verano Sunday to witness the ball game between El Verano and Kenwood. Of course good ball was played on both sides, but I think that the El Verano battery, Geo. Block and Geo. Weaver, were a little too much for the boys from the dry town, the score being 6 to 5. Our Willie played a fine game at short stop and nailed seven high balls during the game—I mean base balls. Willie is alright.

BIGELOW SUED FOR $60,000.

Mrs. Geo. Fetters Alleges He Has Persistently and Criminally Libeled Her

At last the worm has turned. Mrs. Emma Fetters, of Fetters Hot Springs, one of the most enterprising women in the Sonoma Valley, who has invested over $150,000 here the past few years, is preparing papers in a heavy suit for damages against J. K. Bigelow, charging him on three separate counts with criminal libel and asking $20,000 on each count. The libel is alleged to have been committed in statements reflecting on plaintiff's character in the Sonoma Valley Exposition, alleged to be owned and controlled by him. In making mention of the above facts the Press Democrat of Santa Rosa says:
"Mrs. Fetters was in town Thursday consulting with her lawyer, and had a complaint prepared for Mr. Bigelow's arrest on another charge of criminal libel, also published in the paper named. The complaint she took with her. Her attorney was informed Thursday night that the complaint had been filed in the court of Justice of the Peace Campbell at Sonoma."
In her suit against Bigelow Mrs. Fetters, who has been relentlessly pursued by him in his efforts to blacken her character, has the sympathy of almost every man and woman in Sonoma Valley on her side.

GRAPE GROWERS ARE UP IN ARMS.

They Oppose the Proposed Ordinance Against Road Houses and Say it Will Eliminate Wineries.

The Grape Growers' Protective Association of Cloverdale held a meeting on Monday and discussed the ordinance proposal to be enacted into a law by the Anti-Road House League, recently organized in Santa Rosa. The Cloverdale members are under the impression that the proposed ordinance would affect the business and conduct of wineries, and thus curtail the viticultural industry, and issued a statement which is printed here with at the request of the organization mentioned.

A meeting of the grape growers and wine men of northern Sonoma county has been called for next Saturday evening, to be held under the auspices of the Grape Growers' Protective Association at Cloverdale. The statement issued is as follows:

A BOLD ATTEMPT TO ELIMINATE THE WINERY

The attention of the grape and hop growers and those interested in the viticultural interests of Sonoma county is called to an article in the county press of date of August 31, headed "League Fights Roadhouses," which reads as follows:

"No person, corporation, firm or association shall sell, or engage in the business of selling, offering for sale or giving away distilled, spirituous or intoxicating liquors or wines and beers in any portion of Sonoma county lying without the corporate limits of any city or town of said Sonoma county, except such person, corporation, firm or association engaged in the business of conducting a bona fide hotel, having at least thirty-five separate sleeping apartments properly furnished for the accommodation of guests and having dining room at which meals are served at regular hours to boarders and the traveling public."

The officers representing the Anti-Roadhouse League, which title is a new name for an old friend, assured us that it is not a prohibition move. Considering the stupid passivity of the grape and hop men in dealing with the question of prohibition, it is not surprising that this new organization should seek to impose the fraud upon them.

Every man in Sonoma county who is interested in either of the great industries of grape or hop growing, should work against this ordinance as if its defeat depended upon his individual exertions. The only way in which a winery could operate at all under this ordinance outside of corporate limits would be in conjunction with a bonafide hotel containing thirty-five separate rooms properly furnished for the accommodation of guests and a dining room in which meals must be served at regular hours. Let every township have its association of grape and hop growers. There is but one way to put an end to the harassing tactics of the prohibition political party and that is to organize the grape and hop men of Sonoma county for the purpose of mutual protection. A special meeting of the grape growers of northern Sonoma county will be held on Saturday evening at Cloverdale.

Grape Growers' Protective Association, Cloverdale.

Baseball Admission Day—El Verano vs. Sacred Heart College.

The El Verano boys have very kindly consented to meet the Sacred Heart College aggregation of San Francisco on the Sonoma diamond on Admission Day at 10 a. m. This game will be a benefit for St. Francis Church. The city nine are a pretty sturdy bunch and quite hard to beat, but they will have to go some to keep up with our locals. The young El Verano bloods have often before been victorious and this time they are determined to win. A big crowd of rooters are expected to attend and peanuts, popcorn, etc., will be sold on the grounds. Joe Corbett, the famous pitcher of the old Baltimore Orioles, will umpire the game Admission 25 cents. School children free.

Republican County Committeemen.

The following Republican county committeemen were chosen at the primary election last Tuesday in this valley to assist in conducting the campaign this fall:
Acqua Caliente—F. Nichelini.
El Verano—O. C. Benjamin.
Glen Ellen—Morris Levy.
Kenwood—Ned Wilson.
Sonoma No. 1—H. W. Gottenberg.
Sonoma No. 2—Frank Koenig.
San Luis—Howard Knight.
Vineburg—C. R. Potter.

GLEN ELLEN AND VICINITY

Items Gleaned by our Live-Awake Reporter the Past Week

Mr. Hazelworth was a visitor to Santa Rosa one day this week.

Chas. J. Poppe has taken the stump for Taft and he is sure a good Republican.

Judge Huntington was a visitor to this place the past week. He has returned to his home in Sacramento.

Henry Ahlers has returned to his ranch near here after spending several days in the metropolis on business.

Mr. Clark, who is with the J. Chas. Green Co. of San Francisco, has bought a large tract of inside property here.

Miss Phoebe Monahan has gone to San Francisco to visit her brother, Wm. Monahan, who is on the police force of that city.

The Glen Ellen ball team played a close game here Sunday with the San Francisco Arrows. The local team won by a score of 7 to 6.

Mrs. Morris Levy was presented with a gold locket studded with diamonds by Mr. Levy as a birthday present one day this week.

The rain here this week it is thought did not do much damage to the grape crop, but it has played smash with hops and prunes.

Dr. Francis, our local physician, reports the birth of two more Native sons this week. This town has been dubbed "Stork's Nest" by our local merchant, Charley Poppe, who recently bought up Clark Bros. stock of baby shoes.

Ken. Weaver came down from Kenwood Tuesday to cast his ballot.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Nevaumont are visiting at Camp Meeker this week.

W. W. Hopperoff and Harry Earl transacted business in Santa Rosa Wednesday.

Wm. Kearney spent the fore part of the week in San Francisco and Oakland.

E. O. Gates was in Penngrove and vicinity the latter part of last week doing politics.

L. Bernjeit has bought a number of acres on the Lewis tract and will start a summer resort.

Carlos Emparan was in town from Oakland Sunday shaking hands with his many friends.

The wind storm Sunday afternoon blew down all of the hop vines at the Kearney hop yard.

Willis McCloskey, a well-known sea-captain, is the guest this week of his folks Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey.

Miss Susie Kearney returned to Oakland last Saturday after spending a week at the Kearney residence.

The officials' car attached to the regular S. P. train passed through here last Friday evening en route to Santa Rosa.

The Kearney Bros. commenced Monday morning to pick their hops. This year's crop is the largest they ever had.

Manager Wilkinson of the baseball team informs us that one of the best games of the season will be played on the local diamond on next Sunday. A pick of the best boys here has been made and a San Francisco team will be their opponents.

The town was in darkness for several hours Tuesday evening. Somebody was flying a kite which got mixed up with the wires. The current was shut off which made it bad for business places here, all being in darkness. This kite flyer should fly his kite in the hills after this.

Larry Larsen, Harry Baines and Carl Weaver started for an auto trip to Lake county, one day last month, have returned home a week ahead of time owing to all the towns in that section being dry and dead. They were glad to return to El Verano, the town of sunshine and wetness. They were all glad to get home again, you bet.

E. O. Gates, manager of the Bull Moose candidate for delegate to Republican county convention, Guy J. K. Bigelow, blew into town early Wednesday morning looking for the Santa Rosa Press Democrat to find out who was elected for Supervisor. Mr. Gates looked as if he had forgot to wash and no doubt Mr. Bigelow rubbed his eyes when his best man Gates brought the sad news that the old standard bearer Blair Hart was again the nominee and again will be elected Supervisor just as sure as the sun sets on November eight.

Why Have "Nerves?"

This is the reason why women have "nerves." When thoughts begin to grow cloudy and uncertain, impulses lag and the warnings of pain and distress are sent like flying messages throughout limbs and frame, straightway, nine times in ten, a woman will lay the cause of the trouble to some defect at the point where the first felt it. Is it a headache, a backache, a sensation of irritability or twitching and uncontrollable nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back, a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the womanly organs. In nine cases out of ten the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate special organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

Dr. Pierce, during a long period of practice, found that a prescription made from medicinal extracts of native roots, without the use of alcohol, relieved over 90 per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in form of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that would make it easily procurable, and it can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

MRS. LILA B. HAWKINS, of Zeus, Va., writes: "I had been falling in health for two years—most of the time was not able to attend to my household duties. Female weakness was my trouble and I was getting very bad but, thanks to Doctor Pierce's medicines, I am well and strong again. I took only three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' and used the 'Lotion Tablets.' I have nothing but praise for Doctor Pierce's wonderful medicines."
